

METROPOLIS

Inspired from history - Made for the future

2016

Designing, planning and building with METROPOLIS - the new design element provides plenty of room for new concepts. Planners and architects can round out trendsetting architecture or lend grown urban structures a decorative element flowing with the most lively ornamentation.

2015

The idea for the channel grating Metropolis comes from HAURATON France Sales Representative Jean-Christophe Turgné. His aim was, with a functional component such as the drainage channel, to set standards with respect to aesthetics and to impart specific construction projects with futuristic, decorative details.

1927

The movie 'Metropolis', by Fritz Lang, has influenced various genres since its creation in 1927. With the expressionist representation of a futuristic metropolis, the film producer developed a leitmotif that still inspires artists and designers today.
